STAGE PARKHURST SUFFERS.

Actor Gans's Impersonation Now Received in Silence.

v Prima Donna-News and Notes of the Mimic World.

The sentiment of the people with re-E. D. A emparative sflence prevails. Don't you nink that this tells the story of public Gans, who appears as Dr. Parkthe role of Ward McAllister. He is able to be the minister and the inventor of the 400 in one performance. The actor formerly playing Ward Mc-Allister was too short, so Dr. Parkhurst's representative was asked to impersonate McAllister as well. The compliment will surely be appreciated by either McAllister or Parkhurst. Who shall say by which? The enterprising Mr. Gans, who is thus called upon to do lonor to two of the people most discussed in New York to-day, varies the monotony of the dramatic profession with the joys of chemistry. He is a manufacturing chemist with a store downtown.

The stage will have a new prima donna is Winter in the person of Miss Lea an Dyek, who has joined "The Little yeoon" company. She was formerly k, who has John company. She was formerly company. She was formerly beautiful their children and the Hingham a

Mme. Nini-Patte en LAir. the trainer of these girls, who was in this country a few months ago, declares that the dance is not objectionable in any way, and that it is as easy as dancing the polka. The split dancers abound by the score at the Moulin, where they draw munificent salaries ranging from $20 to $100 a month. The latter sum is received by La Goulue, who was to have appeared at the Casino in this city when that theatre was being run as vaude-ville house. Some of the others bear such musical titles as La Maracona, Serpolette, Sautereile, Clair de Lune, Pigonette and Cri-cri.

Edmund Geroon returns to Europe at the end of this month. He has made a very long stay on this side of the ocean, and after seeing to the impertation of some people for "Le Voyage de Suzette" he will being this stay to an end.

Messrs. Herger & Price, the proprietors of the Lee Avenue Academy of Music, at Brooklyn, E. D., redire from the management Saturday night, and on the following Monday Henry Beimer takes their place. Mr. Beimer says that he has leased the premises for "a term of years," and will conduct the theatre "in such a manner as to make it impossible for any one to regret the change."

are, Dr. Jennings, a well-known amateur of Brooklyn, and Edward McLaughlin, the Philadelphia professional. Both are good men doubtless but a still better man can be found, and right in New York, in Billy Sexton. Sexton doesn't need magnifying glasses, and he is impartial. He showed by his work in the Ives-Roberts match, that he is a good referce, and he has had more experience at balk-line billiards than either of the others. It is to be hoped, however, that whoever is selected the defeated ones will not get the "worst of it," as billiard players so often think they do.

On form, it would seem as if Frank Ives were a "good thing" for the tournament. He played billiards yesterday the like of which was never seen before. In the afternoon he ran 553 and in the evening 598. Both of these runs, as far as is known, surp-ss all performances at leinch balk-line. Thus are all the needs evening 508. Both of these runs, as far as is known, surpess all performances at 14-inch balk-line. They are all the more wonderful because they were made by open play, without the aid of the ancror nurse. But the young Napoleon is apt to overdo the thing. He is playing too much billiards, and, as he expressed it, he is apt to become "track sore."

Jake Schnefer will begin practice at the Coleman House to-day. Neither he nor Slosson is at all frightened by ives's big runs. It's different in a tour-nament. After this tournament the chances are the New Yorkers will see but very little of the Wizard. He is thinking of going to San Francisco to live. Chicago, he says, is "plum-busted."

There are enough different events in the Seventh Regiment games to-morrow evening, to give nearly every athlete in the Association a chance to win a prize. The list of events and the order in which they will be run off is as follows:

Ninety-three-yard run, scratch; one-half-mile run, scratch, (championship of the regiment): To-yard run, handicap; one-half mile walk, scratch; 75-yard run, nandicap; one-half mile walk, excratch; 75-yard run, andicap; 93-yard run, scratch; 140-yard run, scratch; 29-yard run, handicap; 93-yard run, scratch; one-half mile walk, handicap; 59-yard sack race, scratch; putting 16-pound shot, scratch; two-mile safety bicycle race, handicap; one-half mile run, scratch, for officers cup; 440-yard run, handicap; one-mile safety bicycle race, handicap; one-mile safety bicycle race, handicap; one-mile safety bicycle race, handicap; 1,000-yard run, handicap, two laps obstacle race, scratch; running sligh jump, handicap.

Manager Brady has completed arrangements for a football tournament to be held in Madison Square Garden Saturday evening. Dec. 16. Two games will be played. The contesting teams will be the Volunteers and the strong eleven of the Pastime Athletic Club, and the Varuna Boat Club and Dobbs Ferry teams. The Volunteers will present the same players who defeated the West Point Cadets. The rivalry between the Volunteers and the Pastimes is very keen. The Varunas and Dobbs Ferry boys are in good form. The Brooklyn paramen will be strengthened by the addition of several Crescent players, while the Dobbs Ferry team will play several college men.

Those pretty yellow leather suits which shone so brightly in the sun at Springfield, and made the Harvard football players look so formidable, are the innocent cause of a sensation at Cambridge. It seems that Mr. Herbert White the athletic manager at Harvard, and the football coaches have not had the most harmonious relations with each other. The coaches ordered the suits without Mr. White's consent, thus ignoring Mr. White's authority and simultaneously incurring an expense of $1,570. Mr. White didn't know the suits had been ordered until he saw the players on the field in Hampden Park. Now he has the bill and the tailor is waiting "Putting the shot is a long ways the hardest thing to learn in arbieties," sold ex-Capt. Glannini, of the New York A. C. "The difficulty lies in acquiring the knack of making the arm carry out the force of the body—that is, to make the arm take up the work where the body leaves off. The arm should never be extended until the shoulder has been thrown forward. It takes most people months to learn this."

The American Athletic Club is the latest addition to the ranks of the Metropolitan Association, A. A. U. The American A. C. will endeavor to jump into prominence by an amateur boxing show at the Lenox Lyceum Jan. 4 and 6. The prizes will be gold watches. The American A. C. evidently knows a thing or two.
